SOURCE 25X1X

On 30 November 1953, source observed that Strausberg airfield, which was vacated by the Soviets, had since recently been occupied by about 150 KVP personnel. The soldiers who wore red collar patches had arrived by truck. The former Waisenhaus (orphanage), which had also been vacated by the Soviets quartered about 100 KVPs who also wore red collar patches.

25X1A  Comment. The vacating by the Soviets of Strausberg airfield was known previously. The Waisenhaus is believed to be identical to the former Jugendamt.  It is unknown what KVP units moved to Strausberg or are scheduled to be transferred there. Possibly, the KVP units observed came from Berlin.
